PREREQUISITI	Basic knowledge of private law.
RISULTATI DI APPRENDIMENTO ATTESI	Knowledge and understanding Extensive knowledge and understanding of the most relevant concepts concerning competition law and international corporate governance. Knowledge and understanding of the economic and juridical principles regulating the above-mentioned subjects. Applying knowledge and understanding Ability to apply knowledge and understanding by showing a professional approach to work; competences typically demonstrated through devising and sustaining arguments and solving problems within the competition/antitrust law and international corporate governance. Making judgements Ability to make analysis and juridical evaluation of the topics related to competition/antitrust law and international corporate governance on the basis of the knowledge and methodology learned during the course. Ability to express autonomous judgement. Communication skills Ability to communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialist and non-specialist audiences. Learning skills Development of learning skills to undertake further studies with a high degree of autonomy. Ability to select instruments and methods to update and constantly improve skills, in particular by analysing case law and law materials as well as referring to specialized literature in the legal field.
VALUTAZIONE DELL'APPRENDIMENTO	Final oral exam. The candidate should answer at least two/three questions regarding the whole syllabus and referring to the recommended texts. The final assessment aims to value whether the student has acquired the knowledge and the ability to comprehend the topics dealt with during the lessons. The student should also be able to interpret relevant data and to show competence in giving autonomous judgments. Students will pass the final exam if they show knowledge and understanding of the topics in general terms and have minimal application skills to solve concrete cases. The candidate should also be able to communicate his/her knowledge of the topics to the examiner clearly and appropriately. Below this level the assessment will be not sufficient. The candidate is evaluated according to the level of his knowledge and receives an assessment out of thirty as final grade (the pass mark is 18/30).
OBIETTIVI FORMATIVI	The course consists of two modules. The first aims to provide advanced knowledge in the field of competition law. The second one aims at introducing students to the main theories, models and practices of corporate governance, making them aware of the different roles played by shareholders, boards and directors in different legal, institutional and ownership settings. Furthermore, lessons provide students with the ability to select instruments and methods in order to update and constantly improve learning skills, in particular by analysing case law and law materials as well as referring to specialized literature in the legal field.
